

Dear sir,

I believe DSL/broadband needs equall playing field. Currently the ILEC owns the copper access to each and every home. I think that is monopoly that should be break up. I believe the ILEC should spin off their copper telephone cable to another company, that company would then lease back to the ILEC/CLEC/end-user and thus everyone would have the opportunity to provide and access which ever the service they want